

UNG General Education Student Learning Outcomes Assessment Plan (3 Year Schedule)

General Education Learning Outcome	Student Learning Outcome	2013. 2014 Assessment Fall	2014.2015 Assessment Fall	2015.2016 Assessment Fall
Area A1: Communication Skills	Students will demonstrate effective reading comprehension and writing, exploring the implications of ideas.	X
Area A2: Quantitative Skills	Students will demonstrate the problem-solving ability to apply mathematical methods to comprehend, interpret, and communicate quantitative information.			X
Area B: Institutional Options	Students will analyze political, cultural, or socioeconomic interactions among people or organizations of the world.	X (Spring 2014 – Initial Round Only)
Area C: Humanities, Fine Arts, and Ethics	Students will analyze forms of expression that reflect individual social, and cultural values.		X
Area D: Natural Sciences, Mathematics, and Technology	Students will apply principles of scientific method and mathematical techniques to the analysis of the natural or physical world.			X

Area E: Social Sciences	Students will analyze the complexity of human behavior as a function of the commonality and diversity within or between groups.		X
Learning Goal I: US Perspectives	Students will analyze the interaction between culture and history or politics in the United States.		X
Learning Goal II: Global Perspectives	Students will analyze political, cultural, or socioeconomic interactions among people or organizations of the world.	X (Spring 2014 – Initial Round)
Learning Goal III: Critical Thinking	Students will identify, analyze, evaluate and synthesize information to make inferences, support ideas, or solve problems.			X