

UNG Mission Statement (Done)

The University of North Georgia, a regional multi-campus institution and premier senior military college, provides a culture of academic excellence in a student-focused environment that includes quality education, service, inquiry and creativity. This is accomplished through broad access to comprehensive academic and co-curricular programs that develop students into leaders for a diverse and global society. The University of North Georgia is a University System of Georgia leadership institution and is The Military College of Georgia.

Values of University of North Georgia

- Courage & Leadership
Leaders influence through strength of character and professional competence; they exhibit moral and physical courage. They translate thought into action even in the face of adversity and inspire others to follow their example.
- Global Awareness & Engagement
Recognizing existing and imminent challenges, UNG students, faculty, and staff contribute to global society through cross-cultural communication and experiences.
- Truth & Wisdom
UNG students, faculty, and staff embrace integrity, the pursuit of knowledge, and a commitment to identify and solve problems. Students and faculty engage in scholarship, research, and creative activities to benefit local, regional, and global communities.
- Integrity & Loyalty
UNG students, faculty, and staff act honestly and ethically while fulfilling the mission of the university. These traits are exemplified through open dialogue and transparent operations within the university and larger community.
- Respect & Inclusiveness
UNG provides access to higher education for all students. UNG students, faculty, and staff value diversity, recognizing the dignity and value of all human beings.
- Service & Stewardship
UNG students, faculty, and staff engage local, regional, and global communities to address social, technological, and environmental challenges for the mutually beneficial exchange of knowledge and resources in a context of partnership and reciprocity.

Vision Statement:

Building upon its distinct and shared traditions, the University of North Georgia (UNG) is an inclusive academic institution of excellence and innovation dedicated to preparing leaders to address regional and global challenges.

-Leadership

- UNG students, faculty and staff
 - take informed action for the greater good
 - take personal responsibility, make decisions, and act with thought and reason
 - devise strategies for positive change, inspiring others toward common goals

-Internationalization

- UNG
 - prepares students to address global issues
 - fosters meaningful and productive partnerships
 - improves international knowledge and understanding

-Accessibility and student centered focus

- UNG
 - provides broad access to diverse educational, cultural, and creative opportunities
 - maintains a student-focused environment that stimulates intellectual growth
 - recognizes the value of all students and supports their potential

-Sustainability

- UNG
 - integrates sustainable practices into all aspects of planning and operations
 - develops awareness of environmental issues to create a sustainable future
 - engages communities to address ecological and environmental challenges

-The Military College of Georgia

- UNG
 - secures recognition as the Army's strongest pre-commissioning program
 - develops renowned programs for related federal service
 - establishes significant international military partnerships
 - achieves recognition as a language, culture, and area studies flagship